Roald Dahl's
Jack and the Beanstalk

Music by Georgs Pelécis

"Fee Fi Fo Fum..."

Roald Dahl was Great Britain's most beloved children's author, whose works include James and the Giant Peach and Charlie and the Chocolate Factory.

This concert-story, based on Dahl's "Revolt Rhyme" features a cast of four actors, outrageous puppets and a stunning 50-foot beanstalk, which rises from the stage to the ceiling in a matter of seconds. There's still a cow, a giant and an ambitious boy with a pocket full of beans, but in Dahl's telling of the tale, getting rich depends on getting past the giant's highly developed sense of smell.

Dandi's company of clever comedians hits the stage in red long-underwear and high spirits, and in a quick Prologue reminds the Family audience what the original fairy tale would be, if Roald Dahl hadn't twisted it around. Then, with puppets and highly original staging, the company transports its all-ages audience to the vibrant world of Dahl's fascinating imagination.

The Latvian composer Georgs Pelécis wrote the rich, spirited score for Jack and the Beanstalk, which was commissioned for the Roald Dahl Foundation. The full-orchestra score provides a challenging and stimulating listening experience, for children and adults alike.

Dandi Productions' Jack and the Beanstalk is a wildly entertaining romp through Roald Dahl's twisted sense of humor.
